Dear Mom,

This evening, I went to a Taiwanese roadside banquet with my friend, Percy. Such banquets are set up under large tents right on the side of busy streets. 43 because it was not from a restaurant, but I was wrong! I had fish, chicken, and pork. All of them tasted great.

I wondered 44. Percy said that this is part of their culture. People would throw a roadside banquet for some important celebrations, such as weddings or birthday parties.

Guess what? The roadside banquet I went to was actually a wedding party of Percy's friend! 45 Weddings there usually take place in a church.

It was fun at the roadside banquet. I hope you were here, too.

With most animals, being male or female is decided during fertilization, such as human. However, you can only know if a turtle is male or female after fertilization. What decides whether a baby turtle will be male or female? It's the temperature of the egg.

One study shows that if a turtle's eggs are in a place below 81.86° Fahrenheit, the baby turtle will be male. If the eggs are in a place above 87.8° Fahrenheit, however, the baby turtle will be female. If eggs are in a place that the temperature there is between these two numbers, there will be both male and female babies. Scientists have also noticed that if the sand is warmer, there will be more female babies.

Sarah: Hey, try this! It took me two hours to buy the cheesecake.

Justin: Why two hours? The store is only one block away from your place.

Sarah: I know! But the line was terribly long, and a man behind me was trying to cut in. So I took some time to "take care of" him.

Justin: You hit him?

Sarah: Please! I'm a friendly, sweet lady! I just talked to him, well, maybe a little loudly. And ... I used some words that were a little strong. When I was "talking" to the man, I didn't know I was off the line. So I had to wait all over again!

Justin: I was really hard work, huh?

Sarah: It WAS! So why don't you try some?

Justin: Well, in fact, I'm a little sick of it. Rebecca bought one last Saturday. She found it too sweet, so she took only one bite. Guess who cleaned it up?

Have you ever heard about flash mobs? By getting into touch with each other on the Internet, flash mobs do interesting things together. The leader, who makes the plans, will tell everybody in the group when they are going to meet and what they are going to do. They usually wear clothes of the same color and show up in a public place, like a train station, and do something unusual. Flash mobs stay in a place for only a few seconds and then leave.

Joining flash mobs is a way for people who meet on the Internet to do something creative and get to know each other at the same time. Some people find flash mobs annoying, but most people there are just trying to have some fun.
