My name is Fred. I am thirteen years old, and I hope to have my own room. I have to share a room with my little sister because our apartment is not big enough for me to have my own room. There are six people in my family - Father, Mother, Tammy, Ellis, Anne, and me.

For a thirteen-year-old boy, sharing a room with his sister is not comfortable or easy. Anne likes pink a lot, and she wants the walls to all be pink. I hate pink, but I still painted half of the room pink. I could paint the rest of the room with different colors. That is, I got two walls in blue and green, and Anne got the other two walls in pink.

Father is going to buy a big house with six bedrooms, and we will move in this Sunday, three days later. I can't wait. Father told us something about our new house. He said we can use a 3D printer to design our own room. I will never have pink walls again.

41. Who is Fred's little sister?
(A) Tammy. (B) Ellis. (C) Annie. (D) Anne.

42. What day is today?
(A) Thursday. (B) Monday. (C) Tuesday. (D) Saturday.

43. What room style does Fred like?
(A) A room with blue and green walls.
(B) A room with a lot of pink dolls.
(C) A room with dark walls.
(D) A room with light pink walls.

44. What kind of brother is Fred?
(A) He hates his sister.
(B) He is a good brother.
(C) He often plays with his sister.
(D) He doesn't want any sisters.

45. From the reading, which is true?
(A) Tammy, Anne and Fred share the same room.
(B) Fred is not comfortable sharing a room with his sister.
(C) Fred will move into a new house with six bathrooms.
(D) Fred's mom will design all the rooms for them.

Do you believe that time is money? We spend time making money, but money can't buy time. If we have more time, we can do more things. This way, we can have better performance at work. To save time, we must be efficient and know how to manage time. Not wasting time is important. Always keep this in mind: Lost time never comes back. These words are simple but they say the great truth.
